

TUF2AA1

DURABLE

- Impact resistant for rough use
- Survives 30-foot drop

STRONG

- Steel plate bolted sides protect interior components from damage

WATER RESISTANT

- Working parts protected from damp work environments

If you are looking for a light for rugged conditions, the TUF2AA1 is an excellent choice. The steel plate bolted sides are strong enough for the light to survive a 30-foot drop with no damage to interior components. Water resistance makes it ideal for work in damp areas.

In addition, the light features a handy, built-in clip. The compact size fits in small work pouches or on your belt.

Before Using Your Flashlight:
Please read all instructions and cautionary markings on the package and light
